

Student Melodies

“Student Melodies” publishes work by U.G and P.G students of our college. Our motto behind this is to motivate the students come up with their hidden talents. We invite submissions of Poetry, Short stories, creative Non-fiction works, Plays, Essays, Photography and artwork. The Editorial board of the college will finalize the publications.

During this pandemic situation, instead of printing manually, Student melodies are a great opportunity to publish everything online. It is a platform to publish Essays of our students written in English classes as well explores any other talent in various areas.

It is started to show diversity in its context and style. We hope to have a fun, dazzling time by engaging yourselves with the collection of work displayed to show off.
